

PICK ME!

If I could write home, I'd tell somebody that I'm not doing well...

Shelter life doesn't suit Lilly (top left), DJ (second from top), Diane (third from top), Tara (bottom left), Reese (small MinPin mix pictured below) Brandy (Golden Chow mix not pictured) and a Yorkie Shitzu mix that just arrived at the shelter (also not pictured).

Lily has been at the shelter for a long time and she craves human attention. Because there are so many animals at the shelter, Lily isn't getting the kind of attention that she so desperately needs.

DJ is an adorable white and tan Beagle. With no one to call his own, DJ has become depressed.

Diane is looking a little ill-humored in her photo, but it is deceiving. She is a loving cat and is also suffering from the lack of a home and people to own.

Tara is beautiful. There is no doubt about that. She also has a lot of energy. She'd like to run and play...perhaps jog along side her person - if she had one. At the shelter, her energy has no where to go.

Reese is small - under twenty pounds. She is very people-oriented and is now despairing that she will never have someone to love.

Brandy is a very sweet Golden Retriever/Chow mix. She came into the shelter full of hope and enthusiasm. But over the past couple of weeks, we've seen her spirit fade as her hope diminishes.

A young Yorkie/Shitzu mix has just arrived at the shelter. She is a surrender. Not knowing where she is or what's going to happen to her, she is terrified. Her anxiety has taken over her entire little body and she shakes uncontrollably.

The depression and anxiety experienced by these little guys can be easily treated. All it takes is a kind person and a home - either a foster home or an adoptive home. Any kind of loving home will do, but one needs to be found FAST.

If you can take one of these animals into your home, please contact Laura Johnson at 410-228-3090.

Go ahead,
